

JOSEPH HENRY SCIENCE FAIR

Judge's Score Sheet: Project _____

Criterion	Unsatisfactory (0)	Acceptable (4)	Good (7)	Excellent (10)
1. USE OF SCIENTIFIC METHOD The scientific method is used to answer the project question. Research and procedure are evident in experiment
2. HYPOTHESIS The hypothesis is clearly stated, testable, and understood by all students involved with the project.
3. DATABOOK The databook is available and contain notes and data as the project unfolded. It does not appear as if it was done after the project just for the Science Fair.
4. DATA PRESENTATION The data and graphs presented are organized and appropriate for the project. The metric system is used throughout the project.
5. MEASUREMENTS The measurements used are appropriate for the hypothesis being tested. Multiple trials are present. Measurements are recorded neatly and logically
TOTAL SIDE 1

Criterion	Unsatisfactory (0)	Acceptable (4)	Good (7)	Excellent (10)
6. MATERIALS Materials used were appropriate for the hypothesis being tested. Safety precautions are being followed throughout experiment. No vertebrates, surveys or hazardous materials are used.
7. SCIENTIFIC DISPLAY Display contains the following sections: Title, Hypothesis, Introduction, Results, Conclusions, Materials, Methods and Future Questions.
8. AESTHEIC DISPLAY Display is neat, attractive and easy to understand. Display contains a 3D aspect. School name does not appear on the poster.
9. PROJECT DISCUSSION All students can explain what, how and why procedure was done. All students can explain any modifications they would make to procedure in future trials.
10. FUTURE DIRECTION One or more new questions can clearly be identified that arose from project.
TOTAL SIDE 2
TIEBREAKER-SCIENTIFIC INGENUITY Rate the uniqueness of this project. This is not tallied into the final score. It is used only as a potential tie breaker.

Total Score:

